Report on Volleyball Practice Match – Men Team

The Volleyball Men Team of Government Degree College Nirmand participated in a practice match with the Men Team of G.B. Pant Memorial PG College Rampur on 05-10-2024 at Rampur College. The team was escorted by Assistant Professor Rahul Sharma.

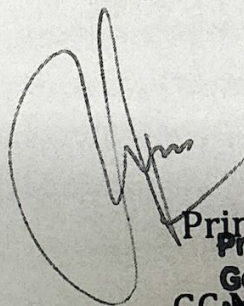

The practice match provided valuable exposure to the players and helped in assessing their individual as well as team performance in a competitive environment. Proper substitutions and rotations were effectively implemented, ensuring that all players received adequate playing time and evaluation opportunities.

The match was conducted in a competitive yet encouraging atmosphere, which strengthened team coordination and sportsmanship among the players. The interaction with the opposing team also contributed to learning new techniques and match strategies.

It was observed that the team performed well in offensive combinations; however, future training sessions should focus on strengthening defensive formations and improving communication on the court. Overall, the practice match proved to be a beneficial experience for skill development and performance analysis.

Report on Volleyball Practice Match – Women Team

The Volleyball Women Team of Government Degree College Nirmand took part in a practice match with the Women Team of G.B. Pant Memorial PG College Rampur on 05-10-2024 at Rampur College. The team was accompanied by Dr Madan Thakur.

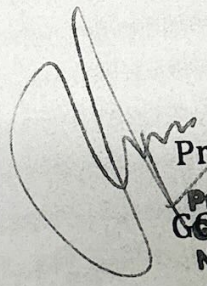

The match served as an important platform for the players to demonstrate their abilities, understand competitive match conditions, and identify areas requiring improvement. The systematic use of substitutions and player rotations enabled a comprehensive evaluation of the team's overall strength and preparedness.

The sporting environment remained supportive and motivating, which helped in building confidence and team unity among the players. Participation in such inter-institutional practice matches enhances exposure and encourages the adoption of improved playing techniques.

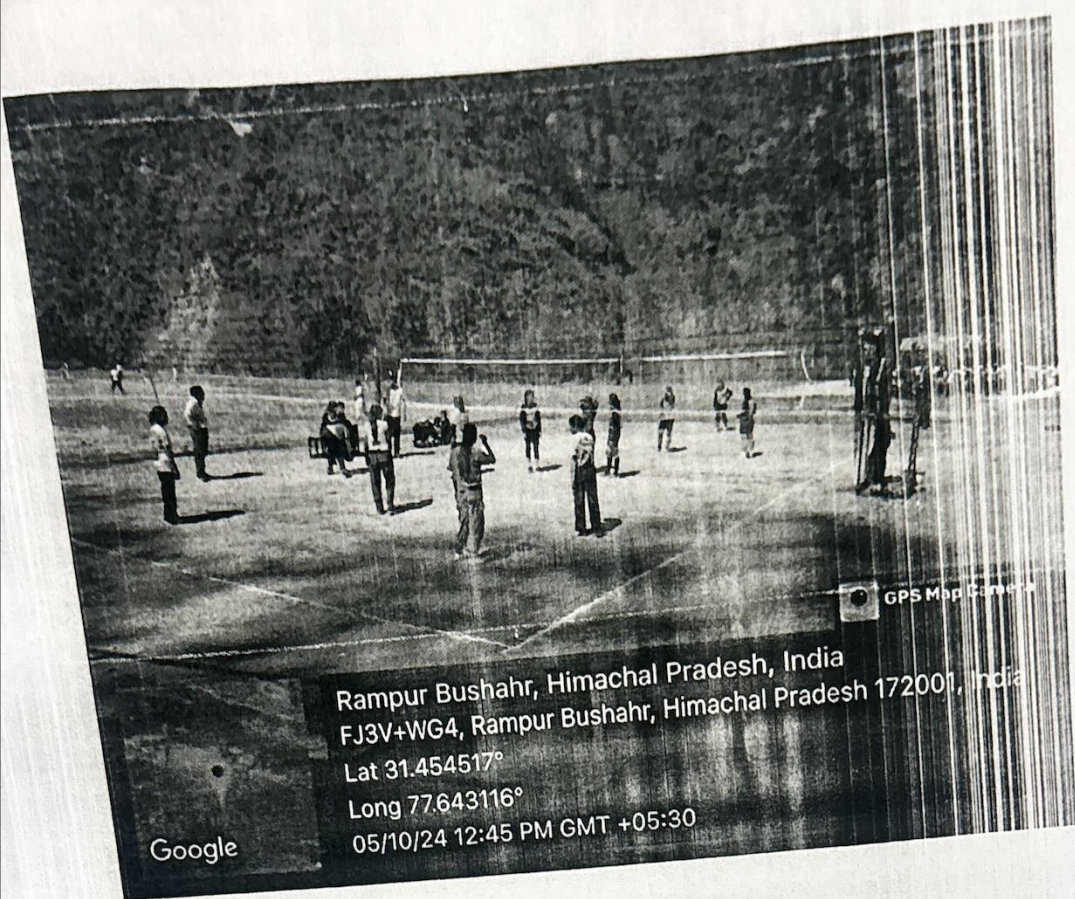

The team showed promising coordination in rallies and attacking moves; nevertheless, greater emphasis is required on defensive strategies, court coverage, and synchronized offensive play in upcoming practice sessions. Overall, the match was a meaningful learning experience for the Women Team.
