Day of the NSS camp began with the "Thought of the Day," presented by Neha, focusing on service to others. The session continued with an insightful talk by our esteemed chief Gaurav Sood, who enlightened us on emotional intelligence, empathy, and social skills, emphasizing their importance in building meaningful connections. His session beautifully highlighted the value of understanding and managing emotions. Post this, an open discussion on emotional intelligence and the spirit of service was conducted under the guidance of Prof. Rahul Sharma, encouraging active participation and exchange of ideas. After lunch, the NSS volunteers engaged in a cleanliness drive, focusing on the maintenance and upkeep of the college premises, embodying the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You."

A Report on Skit "We're only Human Anyway" on World Mental Health Day - 10 October, 2024

On World Mental Health Day, the Ekatva Literary Society from the Department of English presented the skit "We Are Only Human Anyway" on World Mental Health Day, 10 October, 2024 at the backside of the college campus, attended by students, respected professors, and other faculty members.

The skit "We're only Human Anyway", was written and staged by students of Ekatva Literary Society, the skit aimed to raise awareness about mental health challenges faced by students. It follows Anaya, a student overwhelmed by anxiety and societal pressures, and her journey toward healing with the support of friends and family.

Eleven volunteers participated in this skit, with nine characters portraying roles including Anaya, her friend Ravi, Nidhi, Professor Sharma, her parents, a supportive stranger Meera and counselor Dr. Patel. The skit effectively highlighted the importance of expressing emotions and seeking help in today's demanding academic environment.

The performance sparked discussions about mental health, encouraging the audience to prioritize their well-being and reach out for support when needed.

Psychology of Money Book Review Session by Prof. Rahul Sharma at GC Nirmand College

On 27th February 2025, a highly engaging and insightful book review session was conducted by Prof. Rahul Sharma, a faculty member of the Commerce department at GC Nirmand College. The event was part of the college's ongoing efforts to foster intellectual curiosity and promote academic discussions among students and faculty. The session, attended by a diverse group of students. The book review session by Prof. Rahul Sharma on 27th February 2025 was a successful academic event at GC Nirmand College. The professor shared his critical analysis of the book, breaking down the main arguments and concepts. He offered an in-depth examination of the book's approach to subjects such as financial management, marketing strategies, and entrepreneurial innovation. Prof. Sharma emphasized the importance of applying such principles in today's dynamic business environment and encouraged students to think critically about the strategies presented in the book. It provided students with valuable knowledge, critical thinking skills, and practical insights into the world of commerce. The interactive nature of the session made it a memorable learning experience, and it underscored the importance of integrating academic theory with real-world business practices.

A Report on Film Appreciation Session Organized by the Ekatva Literary Society on 10
March, 2025

A Film Appreciation Session was organized for the DSC English students of the college by the Ekatva Literary Society under the aegis of the Department of English on 10th March, 2025 in Room No. 3. The session, conducted by Dr Gaurav Sood, focused on the technical and narrative analysis of the film Rang de Basanti. As the curriculum for DSC English includes film review and reading visual texts, the session aimed at helping students develop a deeper understanding and appreciation of cinema as both an art form and a cultural medium. It sought to encourage critical thinking by prompting students to analyze various aspects of filmmaking such as Cinematography, Screenplay, Mise-en-scene, Lighting, Sound and Music, Editing and Performance. The objective of this session was to encourage critical thinking by prompting students to analyze films through the lenses of storytelling, themes, cinematography, and directorial choices.

After the presentation, an interactive session was facilitated by Dr Priyanka Thakur, and the discussion focused on narrative structure and character development, use of visual and sound techniques, symbolism and thematic depth, cultural and social relevance of the film and comparison with other works of the director or similar films. The students actively engaged in sharing their perspectives, analyzing key scenes, and discussing the emotional and intellectual impact of the film.

6th Day of NSS Camp

The 6th day of the NSS camp at Government Degree College, Nirmand, was marked by a combination of awareness activities and educational sessions. The day began with all the volunteers participating in a rally on drug addiction, spreading awareness among the local community about its harmful effects. After the rally, the volunteers visited a nearby temple, where they actively contributed to the cleaning of the premises, promoting the importance of cleanliness and community service. Following lunch, an engaging lecture session was organized. The first resource person, Mr. Amar Singh Pradhan, from Bhalsi Panchayat, delivered a detailed session on Panchayati Raj. He explained various government schemes and funds available under the system, providing valuable knowledge to the volunteers about rural governance and development. The second lecture was delivered by Dr. Madan Thakur, who spoke on the importance of discipline in life. His insights on the role of discipline in achieving success and building character deeply resonated with the volunteers. The day was both enlightening and inspiring, equipping the participants with knowledge and a sense of responsibility toward society.
