Academic And Co-Curricular Activities Committee

A Report on Teacher's Day Celebration and Fresher's Party Organized on 05 September, 2024

A cultural function was organized in the college on the occasion of Teacher's Day and Fresher's party on 05 September, 2024. The students of the college under the supervision of the Academic and Co-curricular Activities Committee made a detailed plan and schedule of the function. A total of 126 students actively participated in the function. The function started with the reception of the Chief Guest of the function- Dr Rajan Devi Negi (Principal, G.D.C. Nirmand), teachers, office staff and students of BA/ BCom 1st year of the college. After the reception ceremony, the ceremonial lamp was lighted by the Principal and all the staff members. Saraswati Vandana was recited by the students to seek blessings of Goddess Saraswati for an auspicious start to the function. It was followed by Rosette ceremony for Principal and staff members as gesture of respect from students. The formal welcome speech was presented by Sushmita of BA 3rd year and the introduction of the event was read out by Sunidhi (BA 3rd Year) and Prithvi (BA 2nd year).

First in the performances was a rendition of "Guru Paduka Stotram" by Sunidhi (BA 3rd year), Bhumika (BA 3rd year), Sanjeeta (BA 2nd year), Preeti (BA 2nd year) and Sneha Lata (BCom 2nd year). Through this rendition, the students expressed gratitude towards their teachers. Other performances included folk dance by Aditi (BA 2nd year) and her group, solo performance by Kranti (BA 2nd year), folk dance by Jyoti and Nishant (BA 2nd year), solo song by Pitamber (BA 1st year) and Bollywood dance by Sunidhi (BA 3rd year) and her group. The confident performances of the students were highly appreciated by the audience.

The students of 2nd & 3rd year also organized a Mr. and Ms. Fresher competition for the students of 1st year, who participated in the competition with confidence and enthusiasm. Asst. Prof. Surender Dhiman, Asst. Prof. Rajesh Kumar and Dr Gaurav Sood acted as judges for the competition that comprised of three rounds—Introduction round, Talent round and Q &A round. The title of Mr Fresher was won by Pitamber and Sunita became Ms Fresher. Also, Hitesh was given the title of Mr Personality and Smriti won the title of Ms Personality.

In her address, the Principal of the college motivated everyone to get inspiration from the life of Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan and urged everyone to always stay open to learning process. She also congratulated the senior classes for the successful organization and completion of the function. The students of 1st year were also congratulated for their enthusiastic participation in the function.

The formal vote of thanks was read out by Aditika (BA 3rd year) and Saroj (BA 3rd year) in which they extended thanks to Principal and teachers of the college for their guidance. The students of BA/BCom 1st year were also thanked for their participation.

A Report on International Mother Language Day Celebration on 21/02/2025

International Mother Language Day was celebrated in Govt. Degree College, Nirmand on 21 February, 2025 and a special programme was organised by the volunteers of the Ekatva Literary Society on this occasion. The programme was organised under the tagline of "Talent and Ability Development Through Mother Tongue" and the volunteers showcased their talent in their Mother Tongue—Kulluvi.

Sunidhi (BA 3rd year) conducted the stage and talked about the beauty of linguistic plurality that exists in our country. She also stressed the importance of promoting the use of mother language in preserving the rich culture and history of our country. After the introduction of the programme, the volunteers presented a group in their mother language, Kulluvi spoken in village Nirmand. Through the group song, the volunteers narrated various mythological stories of Nirmand and also highlighted the beauty of oral and community tradition of their village. In the second performance, a social message on unity was given through a performative storytelling and humour in Kulluvi. A Pahari Corner with a list of words and sentences in Kulluvi was also set up by the volunteers which was visited by the students and staff of the college.

The programme was organised under the guidance of Dr Priyanka Thakur and Dr Gaurav Sood. Following volunteers participated in the performance:

Group Song: Sunidhi (BA 3rd Year), Bhumika (BA 3rd Year), Sanjeeta (BA 2nd Year), Ajay (BA 2nd Year), Amisha (BA 1st Year), Pitamber (BA 1st Year), Pallavi (BA 1st Year)

Storytelling: Pitamber (BA 1st Year)

Dr Rajan Devi Negi, Principal of the college, also stressed the importance of preserving linguistic diversity of our country and suggested that the compilation of words and sentences in the Pahari Corner can be published in the College Magazine.

Objective of the Programme:

1. To appreciate linguistic diversity
2. To preserve local culture
3. To appreciate oral tradition

A Report on Awareness Programme Organized by the Women Grievance & Redressal Cell and the Ekatva Literary Society on the International Day For the Elimination of Violence Against Women (25 November, 2024)

The Women Grievance & Redressal Cell and the Ekatva Literary Society (Department of English) organized an awareness programme on the occasion of the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women on 25 November 2024 in the College Library. The programme was coordinated by Dr Priyanka Thakur, Asst. Prof. Rajesh Kumar and Dr Gaurav Sood and a total of 41 students participated in it. The Principal of the college, Dr Rajan Devi Negi, presided over the programme as the Chief Guest.

The stage was conducted Ms Sanjita Mehtra (BA 2nd year)-- Gender Champion of the college. To formally begin the programme, the outline of the college was read out by Ms Sanjita. It was followed by a speech by the Gender Champion who threw light on the historical importance of the day and highlighted various forms in which violence against women exist in the society. Through her speech, she also raised the voice for standing strong with the survivors of violence. The importance of economic empowerment and policies promoting gender equality was also stressed upon in the speech.

Next in the programme was a poem recitation by Ms Sunita of BA 1st year. Through her poem she questioned the indifference and silence of the society on violence against women. The poem was followed by a dance performance of the volunteers of the Ekatva Literary society. Through this performance, the volunteers saluted the strength and resilience of women across the globe. The performance also celebrated the sisterhood and the strong bond that women share to lift each other up in the times of crisis.

After the dance performance, the Principal of the college addressed the students and congratulated them for being a part of the awareness programme. She emphasised the need for the youth to take responsibility to bring significant changes in the society for eliminating violence against women. After her address, the Principal opened the floor for the discussion in which students shared their views on the issue under discussion. Most of the students believed that a change in the mindset can bring change in the society. The students also presented their views on patriarchy and its impact in our society. Asst. Prof. Rahul Sharma also shared his views and emphasized on the importance of strict implementation of laws for eliminating violence against women. The programme concluded with a formal vote of thanks by Dr Priyanak Thakur.

A Report on Skit "We're only Human Anyway" on World Mental Health Day - 10 October, 2024

On World Mental Health Day, the Ekatva Literary Society from the Department of English presented the skit "We Are Only Human Anyway" on World Mental Health Day, 10 October, 2024 at the backside of the college campus, attended by students, respected professors, and other faculty members.

The skit "We're only Human Anyway", was written and staged by students of Ekatva Literary Society, the skit aimed to raise awareness about mental health challenges faced by students. It follows Anaya, a student overwhelmed by anxiety and societal pressures, and her journey toward healing with the support of friends and family. Eleven volunteers participated in this skit, with nine characters portraying roles including Anaya, her friend Ravi, Nidhi, Professor Sharma, her parents, a supportive stranger Meera and counselor Dr. Patel. The skit effectively highlighted the importance of expressing emotions and seeking help in today's demanding academic environment.

The performance sparked discussions about mental health, encouraging the audience to prioritize their well-being and reach out for support when needed.

Report on Poster Making Competition Organized on Ozone Day

Event: Poster Making Competition on Ozone Day

Date: September 16, 2024

Venue: Govt. Degree College, Nirmand, Kullu, H.P.

Introduction:

The Ozone Day Poster Making Competition was organized on September 16, 2024 by the Eco-Club of the college, to celebrate World Ozone Day. The event aimed to raise awareness among students about the importance of the ozone layer and the need to protect it from depletion. The theme for this year's competition was "Ozone for Life: 35 Years of Global Cooperation."

Purpose of the Event:

The competition was part of a larger initiative to educate students about the harmful effects of ozone layer depletion, the significance of global efforts to repair it, and how individual actions can contribute to environmental conservation. Students were encouraged to creatively express their understanding of ozone protection through creative and thoughtful posters.

Participants:

A total of 36 students participated in the event. The participants were given specific guidelines for poster size, materials, and a brief on the theme. They were allowed to use various types of colors such as crayons, sketch pens and water color.

Competition Highlights:

- Opening Remarks: The event began with a short presentation by Dr. Gaurav Sood on the importance of World Ozone Day. He spoke about the Montreal Protocol, the gradual recovery of the ozone layer, and how continued vigilance is necessary. This was followed by a brief explanation of the competition guidelines.
- Poster Creation: Participants had two hours to complete their posters. As students worked diligently, their creativity and understanding of the subject were apparent. Many posters depicted global environmental issues, such as the harmful effects of CFCs, rising temperatures, and wildlife protection. Some students took an optimistic approach, highlighting future of Earth as a green and healthy planet.
- Judging Criteria: The posters were judged based on the following criteria:
 1. Relevance to the theme
 2. Creativity and originality
 3. Presentation and artistic skills
 4. Message clarity

Panel of Judges: The panel of judges included Dr. Priyanka Thakur, Dr Madan Thakur, Asst. Prof. Rajesh Kumar, who evaluated the submissions and provided valuable feedback to the participants.

Declaration of Winners:

After the judging process, winners were announced. The first, second, and third place winners were:

- 1st place: Laxmi (BA I), Ankita (BA III)
- 2nd place: Sunidhi Mehta (BA III), Pitambar (BA I)
- 3rd place: Bhumika (BA III), Snehlata (B.Com II)

Conclusion:

The Ozone Day Poster Making Competition 2024 was a great success, with students showcasing their creativity and knowledge of environmental conservation. The event concluded with a pledge to continue efforts in raising awareness about protecting the ozone layer. Participants left with a deeper understanding of the crucial role the ozone layer plays in safeguarding life on Earth and the steps we can take to preserve it for future generations.

A Report on Declamation Competition Organised by CSCA on March 3rd 2025

As a part of the National Science Day celebration, a Declamation Competition was organised by the CSCA on March 3rd 2025 in Room No. 1 of the college. The competition aimed to encourage students to express their ideas on science, technology, and innovation. A total of 9 students participated in the competition, delivering their speeches both in Hindi & English. This year, the theme for National Science Day was: "Empowering Indian Youth for Global Leadership in Science and innovation for Viksit Bharat." Under this theme, participants enthusiastically shared their perspective on given topics, making the event engaging and insightful. The Principal, Dr. Rajan Devi Negi, congratulated all the participants and encourage other students to take part in such competitions to enhance their knowledge and confidence. The competition was judged by Dr. Madan Lal (Assistant Professor Hindi) & Mr. Surender Dhiman (Assistant Professor History). They appreciated the efforts and dedication of the participants and encouraged them to continue their journey of learning. The event successfully provided a platform for students to share their thoughts on science, technology, and innovation, aligning with the vision of Viksit Bharat.
